When brownies and donuts come together, the result is a chocolate bronut

Ingredients

For the Bronuts

170 g ($\frac{3}{4}$ cup) unsalted butter	100 g ($\frac{1}{2}$ cup) brown sugar
60 g ($\frac{1}{4}$ cup + 1 tbsp) caster sugar	100 g ($\frac{3}{4}$ cup) dark chocolate
2 large eggs	2 tsp vanilla
170 g (1 cup + 3 tbsp) plain (all purpose) flour	30 g ($\frac{1}{4}$ cup) cocoa powder
0.5 tsp salt

For the Decoration

30 g (2 tbsp + 1 tsp) unsalted butter	100 g ($\frac{1}{2}$ cup) caster sugar
0.25 tsp salt	4 tsp cocoa powder
1 tsp vanilla	2-4 tbsp milk
sprinkles, to decorate (optional)

Directions

For the Bronuts

Brush the donut pan with some melted butter and set it aside. Preheat the oven to 180C/350F whilst making the brownie mixture.

In the large mixing bowl, melt together the butter, brown sugar, caster sugar and dark chocolate. I do this in the microwave in short bursts, stirring in between, but it can be done on the hob too. Whichever way you choose to do it, make sure to stir often so not to burn your sugars or chocolate. Once everything is melted and well mixed together, leave the mixture to cool.

Once the mixture has cooled down, add the eggs in one at a time mixing in between additions. Add in the vanilla and stir to combine.

Sift the flour, cocoa powder and salt into the mixing bowl and fold in using the spatula until just combined. Spoon the brownie mixture into a piping bag, if using, then pipe into the donut pan. Fill the pan evenly until level with the top. Unlike other baked donuts, these do not rise as much, so there is no risk of it overflowing and the donut hole closing over. Smooth the tops of the mixture once it has all been split between the donut holes.

Bake the bronuts for 10-12 minutes until baked through and the tops have slightly domed and have cracked all the way over the donuts. Leave in the pan to cool for 5 minutes, then transfer to a wire rack to cool before decorating.

For the Decoration

In a small mixing bowl, place the butter, sugar, salt and cocoa powder along with 2 tbsp milk. Heat it in short bursts in the microwave, stirring gently to combine until smooth. Add in the vanilla and mix in well. If you prefer your glaze thinner, add in more milk one teaspoon at a time until it reaches the consistency you like.

Carefully dunk your bronuts into the glaze, gently swirling them around to coat the top of them evenly. Leave to settle back on the cooling rack, popping any air bubbles with a toothpick if needed. Decorate with sprinkles, if desired.

Your Roadside Plants and Hedges, Trees and Banks

a guide to the “branchage law”

What is the law about “branchage”? The Loi (1914) sur la Voirie (“branchage law”) makes roads and footpaths safer for all who use them. It achieves this primarily by requiring that the entire width of roads and footpaths is not restricted by vegetation. ‘Footpaths’ includes pavements and the width of a road includes any “relief”. On two occasions each year, Parish officials carry out the “Visites du Branchage” to ensure vegetation has been cut and removed.	What do I have to do? All occupiers of property bordering public roads and public footpaths in Jersey must – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Trim any vegetation growing on the property so that it does not encroach over the road or footpath. ✓ Ensure a minimum clearance of 12 feet (3.66m) above all public roads and 8 feet (2.44m) above public footpaths and pavements, measured vertically from the point at which the surface of the road or footpath meets the property (see sketch below). ✓ Remove all cuttings.
Who is responsible for cutting the branchage? The occupier of buildings or land is responsible for cutting the branchage. For multiple occupancy properties the ‘occupier’ is the company (if the property consists of share transfer flats) or the association of co-owners (if the property is flying freehold).
What happens if the branchage isn’t removed? There is a financial penalty (up to £100 per infraction), the occupier will be instructed to undertake the work and, if it is still not carried out, the Parish authorities may arrange for it to be done by a contractor at the occupier’s expense.	When are the Visites du Branchage? The “Visites du Branchage” take place during a 3-week period from 24 June and from 1 September. The dates are published in the Jersey Gazette and also on your Parish website.	Does the branchage have to be cut at other times? Irrespective of the Visites du Branchage, it is the duty of the Connétable, at all times, to have all impediment branchage (literally “branches”) and other obstructions or nuisance removed from the public roads, with penalties applicable to those who do not comply.
