Your Roadside Plants and Hedges, Trees and Banks

a guide to the "branchage law"

What is the law about "branchage"? The Loi (1914) sur la Voirie ("branchage law") makes roads and footpaths safer for all who use them. It achieves this primarily by requiring that the entire width of roads and footpaths is not restricted by vegetation. 'Footpaths' includes pavements and the width of a road includes any "relief". On two occasions each year, Parish officials carry out the "Visites du Branchage" to ensure vegetation has been cut and removed.	What do I have to do? All occupiers of property bordering public roads and public footpaths in Jersey must – <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Trim any vegetation growing on the property so that it does not encroach over the road or footpath. ✓ Ensure a minimum clearance of 12 feet (3.66m) above all public roads and 8 feet (2.44m) above public footpaths and pavements, measured vertically from the point at which the surface of the road or footpath meets the property (see sketch below). ✓ Remove all cuttings.
Who is responsible for cutting the branchage? The occupier of buildings or land is responsible for cutting the branchage. For multiple occupancy properties the 'occupier' is the company (if the property consists of share transfer flats) or the association of co-owners (if the property is flying freehold).	Does the branchage have to be cut at other times? Irrespective of the Visites du Branchage, it is the duty of the Connétable, at all times, to have all impeding branchage (literally "branches") and other obstructions or nuisance removed from the public roads, with penalties applicable to those who do not comply.
What happens if the branchage isn't removed? There is a financial penalty (up to £100 per infraction), the occupier will be instructed to undertake the work and, if it is still not carried out, the Parish authorities may arrange for it to be done by a contractor at the occupier's expense.	When are the Visites du Branchage? The "Visites du Branchage" take place during a 3-week period from 24 June and from 1 September. The dates are published in the Jersey Gazette and also on your Parish website.
